

Crimestoppers
Wanted by the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office
Reward: Up to $2500

Daniel Marino
Date of Birth: 10/10/75

Daniel Marino was released from the Louisiana Department of Corrections on parole for possession of heroin on January 22, 2008. Marino failed to report to his parole officer as required after his release. Since that release, police have identified him as the perpetrator of four crimes listed below.

Auto theft from 1046 Carrolton Avenue, Metairie on February 21, 2008

Residential burglary of 301 Cherry Street, Metairie on February 25, 2008

Auto theft from 109 Rosebud Street, Metairie on February 25, 2008

Three attempted auto thefts and an auto burglary from 109 Rosebud Street, Metairie on February 27, 2008

Marino is suspected in several other offenses. All of them have occurred in and around the Buck Town area of Metairie. Marino is believed to be hiding in this area, going from the residence of one acquaintance to another. Marino's criminal history includes arrests for various thefts, simple robbery and several drug charges.
