

. CRIMESTOPPERS SUCCESS

SUSPECT ARRESTED FROM CRIMESTOPPERS TIP

December 30th Homicide in Reserve

Crimestoppers Executive Director Darlene Cusanza featured the following suspect Mr. Jules Robertson during its bi monthly WWL TV Morning Show appearance and within hours, received tips on Mr. Jules Robertson. Additional information was provided with another tip on February 15th which led to the arrest yesterday within minutes of receiving the Crimestoppers tip by St. John Parish Sheriff's Department.

A second suspect Mr. Calvin Mitchell 22, DOB 9/29/86, of Maurepas, LA, is still at large. Anyone with information is on Mr. Mitchell is asked to call Crimestoppers at (504) 822-1111 or 1(877) 903 – STOP. You do not have to provide your name or testify to earn the cash reward. The reward is paid upon arrest and indictment. The reward is up to $2500.

#####

From: Dane Clement [mailto:d.clement@stjohnsheriff.org]
Sent: Monday, February 16, 2009 3:41 PM
To: Cusanza, Darlene G.
Subject:

February 16, 2009, Arrest Made for December 30, Homicide

On Sunday, February 15, 2009, at 7:30 p.m., St. John Sheriff's Office received a call from Crimestoppers. Crimestoppers received an anonymous tip regarding the location of Jules Robertson. Robertson was wanted by St. John for the murder and the attempted murder that occurred December 30, 2008 in Reserve.

Jules Robertson, 20, DOB 8/1/88, of Reserve, was arrested at an apartment in the 700 block of Cambridge Drive. No bond was set for the murder charge; a $500,000 bond was set for the attempted murder charge; and a $300 bond was set for each of the Contempt of Court (2) charges.

Calvin Mitchell, 22, DOB 9/29/86, of Maurepas, LA, is still at large and wanted for the same incidents of December 30. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Mitchell should call Crimestoppers or Detective Walter Stevens at 985-652-9513, ext. 159.