

Lakeview, Metairie burglary suspect arrested

Date: 3/5/2010

New Orleans – Police have arrested a suspect wanted in several recent burglaries stretching from Lakeview to Metairie.

Luhron Gorman, 22, was arrested early this morning by authorities from Jefferson and Orleans parishes, and the U.S. Marshalls, in a hotel in the 1500 block of Martin Luther King Street in Monroe.

Police say Gorman was one of two men who entered a house through an open door in the 6700 block of Catina Street in the afternoon of February 19. Once inside, the suspects demanded money from the victim. They left with two stolen handguns and an undisclosed amount of cash.

Police got a tip from Crimestoppers as to the identity of Gorman. Gorman was later positively identified out of a photograph line-up.

Gorman is also wanted on an armed robbery charge in Metairie.

Luhron Gorman, 22 (FOX 8 News)