Crimestoppers Tip Leads to Second Suspect Arrested in Recent Armed Robbery/Kidnapping

New Orleans, LA - Today, the New Orleans Police Department's Violent Offender Warrant Squad and the United States Marshals Gulf Region Task Force arrested 18-year-old Joshua Moore. Moore was booked in connection with an armed robbery and kidnapping that occurred on September 6, 2011.

Investigators say 18-year-old Joshua Moore and 19-year-old Charles Adams robbed two victims at gunpoint near the corner of Conti and North Alexander Streets. The victims were forced to drive to their homes, and then to an ATM, where they were ordered to withdraw cash and hand it over.

Through a Crimestoppers tip and further investigation, New Orleans police and the United States Marshals located Joshua Moore at a residence in the 1900 block of

Sixth Street

. Moore was apprehended and booked with armed robbery, aggravated kidnapping and auto theft.

Charles Adams was arrested by NOPD officers on September 10, 2011, in the 3600 block of

Eagle Street

Moore's photo is attached.

Superintendent Ronal Serpas said, "This case illustrates the effectiveness of true partnerships with the community and local law enforcement agencies. A violent offender was successfully apprehended due to a Crimestopper's tip and the collaboration between the NOPD and the U.S. Marshals Gulf Region Task Force. These strong partnerships are critical to our success."
